Money Matters Last Sunday £472.61 was given at the Offertory. Next weekend there will be a retiring collection for the Catholic Communication Service.

Accommodation A very nice Lithuanian lady, who attends Mass here regularly, is looking for a room or flat. If you can help, please mention it to Fr. John.

Thank you 'Kathleen Borthwick and all the family want to express their sincere thanks for all the mass cards, messages of sympathy, and condolences sent to them on the death of Roger, and to those who attended the funeral mass and "Grandad's Party" in the Memorial Hall. We have been quite overwhelmed by all your kind words and the high regard in which Roger was held. It has helped to sustain us at this difficult time. Your prayers have helped us in our sad loss.'

Justice & Peace Group 'Olive Soap from Palestine. The soap will be available for collection from the back of church next weekend, May 19th/20th by those parishioners who have ordered it. Please put the appropriate amount of money in the box provided. The soap is £2.0 a bar. Many thanks.'

Church Flowers Two people have been lost to the Flower Rota due to moving away. Are you able to help fill the gaps, please? If you can, then please 'phone Jan Duffield on 693687. Offers would be gratefully received ; what you spend on flowers is re-embursed.

The flower borders Following the piece in last week's Newsheet, several people have asked me whether there has been any response. Well yes : one person brought a tray of trailing lobelia to the door, another planted two primulas in the bed adjoining the church, and one of the parish organizations donated two packets of seed! These were kindly gestures, but they obviously don't address the problem. We need a strategy, and a lot of time, and probably a fair amount of money, will need to be spent on the project. The Parish Council will discuss it further at their meeting on Tuesday.

THE MAY DEVOTION

May is Our Lady's month, and on one of the Sundays in May each year, we have the May devotion at the end of the 11.0am Mass.

The statue is crowned – an expression of the fact that we recognize Mary as our Queen, and during the crowning, we sing the following hymn:

*1. Bring flowers of the rarest,
Bring blossoms the fairest,
From garden and woodland and hillside and dale;
Our full hearts are swelling,
Our glad voices telling
The praise of the loveliest flower of the vale.*

*O Mary, we crown thee with blossoms today,
Queen of the Angels and Queen of the May,
O Mary, we crown thee with blossoms today,
Queen of the Angels and Queen of the May.*

*2. Their Lady they name thee,
Their mistress proclaim thee,
Oh, grant that thy children on earth be as true
As long as the bowers
Are radiant with flowers,
As long as the azure shall keep its bright hue.*

O Mary, we crown thee
