

GOSPEL REFLECTION FOR THE SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Buried Treasure

“The Kingdom of Heaven is like a treasure buried in a field; which a person finds and hides again, and out of joy goes and sells all that he has and buys that field.”

“The Kingdom of Heaven is like a merchant searching for fine pearls. When he finds a pearl of great price, he goes and sells all he has and buys it.”

In both parables both men appreciate the true value of what they have discovered. Both men are certain about the wisdom of what they must do and are willing to put everything on the line to secure their newfound treasure.

Today Jesus is asking us to determine how much we treasure the Kingdom of Heaven. How valuable is Heaven to us and what are we prepared to do to secure it? Are we prepared to give all we’ve got and to renounce everything that gets in the way? If the two men in the parables had passed their treasure by or failed to recognise the treasure’s value, we would have thought them insane, yet this is how we behave all the time.

All too often we are prepared to let the Kingdom of Heaven slip through our fingers. Perhaps we do this because we have never stopped to reflect on how valuable the Kingdom of Heaven is. Perhaps we have recognised the value of God’s Kingdom to us but have forgotten it in the day-to-day distractions of putting meals on the table and paying the bills. Perhaps heaven’s rewards seem so distant that we prefer instead to work for more immediate and tangible rewards: home improvements, fame, social acceptance and career development. Perhaps we think we can work on God’s agenda and our own agenda simultaneously, recognising the value of God’s Kingdom but not quite able to renounce our own self-interest.

Jesus gives us some concrete advice. He tells us that those who study the scriptures and search diligently will find the discernment to recognise God’s treasure and the wisdom to secure it.

PARISH PRAYER - Father, pour out your Spirit upon our parish. Grant us a new vision of your glory, a new faithfulness to your Word, and a new consecration to your service; that your love might grow among us and your Kingdom come.
Through Christ our Lord. Amen

Finding a Church on Holiday: Masstimes.org – It can be difficult for Catholics to find a Mass when travelling or when it is not practical to attend their regular parishes. It is not always easy to find the right diocesan or parish websites. “Mass Times” makes it much easier to search for a Mass by presenting all the possibilities in a geographical area on one web page. This really useful website provides worship times, church locations, contact information, website links and maps. There are 117,000 churches in 201 countries/territories. Visit www.masstimes.org

Summer Retreats 2017 – ‘Retreats 2017’ is the annual publication of the Retreat Association. This year’s guide gives information and programmes for over 230 Christian retreat centre in the UK and beyond. There are retreats with themes such as painting and walking individually guided retreats and quiet days. You can order a copy online at www.retreats.org.uk/retreatshandbook.php

Summer Reading – Bored Again Catholic, By Timothy P. O’Malley, ISBN:9781681920580: We want the Mass to entertain, make us laugh, give us foot tapping music and sound-bite theology, and get it done in under an hour. Yet every Sunday many of us tune out. Author Tim O’Malley, in a series of reflections on every part of the Mass, challenges us to turn the idea of boredom on its head, calling boredom—the “good” boredom that opens us to the quiet interior space where we can encounter God—a “sweet gift.” It is there that full participation in the Mass becomes possible—the potential to be transfixed by a ritual, to contemplate the readings, to savour the Eucharist. To be fruitfully “bored again.” This book invites us to become a ‘Bored Again’ Catholic and rediscover the power of the Mass.

Bite Size - “Where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.” ~ Matthew 6.21

The Angelus

- V. The Angel of the Lord declared unto Mary. R. And she conceived of the Holy Spirit.
Hail Mary ....
  - V. Behold the handmaid of the Lord. R. Be it done unto me according to thy word.
Hail Mary ....
  - V. And the Word was made Flesh. R. And dwelt among us. Hail Mary ....
  - V. Pray for us, O holy Mother of God. R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.
- LET US PRAY: Pour forth, we beseech Thee, O Lord, Thy grace into our hearts, that we to whom the Incarnation of Christ Thy Son was made known by the message of an angel may, by His Passion and Cross, be brought to the glory of His Resurrection. Through the same Christ, Our Lord. Amen.
